

Cruelty-Free Brands for Cosmetics, Toiletries, and Household Products

This list highlights all of the cruelty-free Leaping Bunny-approved brands that have passed the comprehensive standard that companies must pass to be certified by the Leaping Bunny Certification. These brands are members of the Member Coalition for Consumer Information on Cosmetics (CCIC) for Cruelty-Free Products. Brands with Leaping Bunny Certified beside the brand name, use the Leaping Bunny Logo on their products. Also noted are brands that have met the Leaping Bunny International Cruelty-Free Standards in Canada.

In addition, we note the brands that are PETA Cruelty-Free Certified, PETA Vegan Certified, and PETA Certified Beauty Without Bunnies. To be PETA Cruelty Free, brands have provided a statement verifying that they do not conduct or commission any animal tests on ingredients, formulations, or finished products and that they pledge not to do so in the future. For the Beauty Without Bunnies Program, the company has committed to not testing on animals.

All of these brands represent brands that have been safety-tested without the use of live animals. We also note the brands that are vegan and contain no animal ingredients, as well as the brands that do contain animal ingredients in their products. Here are the best online e-tailers and retail stores to shop for Leaping Bunny approved brands.
